THE CAROLINA SOUTH GAZETTE.

[VOL. XXXIII.] [NUMB. 1676.]

From Monday NOVEMBER 2, to Monday NOVEMBER 9, 1767.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

The PRESENTMENTS of the grand jurors for the body of this province at a court of general sessions of the peace, oyer and terminer, assize and general goal delivery, begun and holden in Charles Town, Monday the 19th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and sixty-seven.

I. WE present as a very great grievance, the want of circuit or county courts being established for the benefit and ease of the inhabitants of the back parts of this province.

II. We present as a great grievance, the want of a proper public goal, as the present is quite insufficient.

III. We present as a grievance, the want of the province acts being reprinted, and properly digested under distinct heads.

IV. We present as a great grievance, the neglect of the militia law, many parishes not mustering, or done any patrole duty, for many years past: We also complain of the neglect of not carrying arms to church, and to best places of divine worship, and against the bad custom of delivering their arms to negroes to keep, during divine service.

V. We present as a grievance the want of a law to prevent the firing of hemp in the heart of the town.

VI. We present as a great grievance, the want of a proper person to inspect the measuring of wood in Charles Town, and to prevent the forestalling thereof, which is so sensibly felt by its poor inhabitants.

VII. We present as a grievance, the general disregard of the Lord's-Day, and the magistrates and constables for not carrying into execution the laws for the due observance of it.

VIII. We present as a grievance, the want of a law to establish a ferry between Stono and John's Island, commonly called Stono Ferry.

IX. We present as a grievance, the want of a law for cleaning of New Cut and Wappoo Cut, the navigation at present being very dangerous, and the detention of boats, in the latter, is obvious to all concerned.

X. We present the commissioners for that part of the highway called Ashley River Road, leading from the plantation of William Elliott's estate to the old Quarter-House, and also that part of the road leading into Goose Creek Parish, as far as the plantation of John Ernest Poyas, being totally neglected for many years.

XI. We present as a grievance, the want of a law to regulate the rates of wharfage in Charles-Town, as well as the scales and weights on said wharves, for want of which many hardships are sustained by the trading and planting interests in this province: We also complain of the hardships masters of vessels lay under in this port, by being obliged to pay for packages, &c. stolen off the wharves at the time of delivering their cargoes.

XII. We present as a grievance, the want of public schools for the education and instruction of the children of the poor inhabitants in the back parts of this province; as also places for divine worship, and recommend to the legislature every measure that may tend to the better order and regulation of those parts.

XIII. We present as a grievance, that by far the greater part of the poor of this province, and many from the adjacent provinces, have, for these many years past, centered in Charles-Town, to the great prejudice and expence of the inhabitants of said town.

XIV. We present as a grievance, the bad practice of free negroes and mulattoes being suffered to pass to and fro without any certificate or badge of their being free, by which means many run away slaves are suffered to pass as free.

XV. We present as a grievance, the watch of Charles-Town being insufficient to guard the town; and recommend that their number and pay be encreased, whereby men of some repute and property may be induced to serve.

XVI. We present as a grievance, the causeways in this province being in general very bad, owing to their being made too narrow, and not high enough to prevent a spring tide from overflowing them, which, in a short time, renders them unpassable.

XVII. We present as a grievance, the want of lamps in this town.

XVIII. We present the commissioners of the fortifications, for suffering the works to be neglected, as there is an annual sum allowed to keep them in repair.

XIX. We present as a grievance, the want of more large public wells, now wanted in many parts of this town.

XX. We present as a grievance, the want of a fire-company to be established by law, with a handsome gratuity for their services.

XXI. We present Cornelius Buckmer, and Mr. Whitzer, both in Union-street, for keeping disorderly houses, cooking victuals for, and entertaining negroes, to the great hurt of the community in general. By information of James Henry Butler.

XXII. We present the heinous and wicked custom of cursing and swearing amongst the negroes of this town, who pass unpunished, when a white labourer is obliged to pay one shilling sterling for every oath. By information of James Henry Butler.

XXIII. We present the great evil of men being appointed to the office of constable, who are a disgrace thereto, and to the discontent of those who endeavour to discharge their duty confidentially. By information of James Henry Butler.

XXIV. We recommend that the court do apply to the governor to have some provision made for the poor indigent persons who were obliged to attend the present court as evidences.

XXV. We present as a grievance, the number of licences for retailing spirituous liquors in Charles-Town not being limited.

XXVI. We present as a grievance, that many persons appointed as magistrates, have not qualified, but by their being so appointed, claim an exemption of all public duties.

XXVII. We present as a great grievance, that too little regard has been paid to the presentments heretofore made by the Grand Jurors.

ON Monday the 2d day of November 1767, being the first adjournment day of October sessions, the presentments of the grand jury were taken into consideration, when the following orders were made thereon, viz.

1st. 2d. 3d. ORDERED, that these several presentments be laid before the legislature.

4th. THE court recommends the first part of this presentment to the particular notice of his excellency the governor, as captain general and commander in chief. The militia law of this province having made provision for obliging the inhabitants thereof to go properly armed to churches and other places of religious worship; the churchwardens of the several parishes are earnestly exhorted and required to see that part of the law, which it is their duty to enforce, carried strictly into execution.

The court can do nothing further relative to this presentment, none of the offenders being particularized.

5th. HERE being at present several the grievances here presented, and no particular persons expressly charged as guilty of the fact thereof, ORDERED, that this presentment be quashed for want of form.

6th. ORDERED, that this presentment be laid before the legislature.

7th. It is earnestly recommended to the magistrates, and given in charge to the constables in the parishes of St. Philip and St. Michael, Charles-Town, that they do respectively see the laws for the due observance of the Lord's day carried vigorously into execution.

8th. and 9th. ORDERED, That these two presentments be laid before the legislature.

10th. ORDERED, That this presentment be quashed, for uncertainty and want of precision, no person or persons being presented by name.

11th. 12th. 13th. 14th. 15th. 16th. 17th. 18th. 19th. and 20th. ORDERED, That these several presentments be laid before the legislature.

21st. As the negro law directs that where negroes are guilty of any crime for which a white man is liable to be fined, they shall in such case receive corporal punishment, the constables are ordered to use their utmost endeavours in restraining the heinous and wicked custom here presented.

23d. THE court will pay all due notice to this presentment, and considering the informant as one of the persons meant by the grand jury, it is ORDERED, that James Henry Butler do serve no longer in the office of a constable.

24th. The court has paid and will pay all due regard to this recommendation.

25th. ORDERED, That this presentment be laid before the legislature.

26th. ORDERED, that this presentment be recommended to the particular notice of his excellency the governor, and his majesty's honourable council.

27th. THIS court always hath and ever will pay all due notice and regard to the presentments of the grand juries. And it is ORDERED that copies of the presentments at this present session, together with the orders thereupon made, be laid before the three branches of the legislature; and also that the same be published in the several Gazettes of this province.

28th. ORDERED, That process do issue against Cornelius Buckmer and Whitzer, both of Union-street, to compel them to come in, plead to, and answer this presentment. It is also ordered that the informant be bound over to prosecute and give evidence against the parties presented.

LONDON, SEPTEMBER 1.

THEY write from Dantzick, of the 18th of laſt month, that the grandees of Poland are raiſing recruits on their eſtates, to reinforce the troops, and that the army of the crown was alſo making levies, in order to augment the cavalry and the light troops.

We hear that a patriot commoner has it in contemplation to bring a bill next ſeſſion into parliament, to diſqualify Scotchmen from repreſenting Engliſh counties or boroughs for the future, as he thinks there are Engliſhmen enough qualified in all reſpects for ſuch an important truſt, without troubling our very obliging friends on the other ſide the Tweed, who ſeem to have ſo good an opinion of Engliſh heads, that they never chuſe one to repreſent any borough or county in Scotland, not even the moſt inſignificant.

We are informed that in one of the Weſtern cities no leſs than eight Turtles have been deſtroyed within this fortnight, which is ſuppoſed to be a ſpecies of bribery, for the firſt time introduced into that country.

We hear that ſome time to come (according to the rule that has been uniformly obſerved for ſome time paſt) no employment will be conferred except on thoſe who have previouſly given full proofs of their attachment to the Thane, in order to make ſome ſmall amends for the cruel and unmerited treatment given by ſeveral Engliſhmen to that injured nobleman.

According to ſome letters, dated Auguſt 20, from the interior parts of Poland, ſeveral of the magiſtrates are raiſing troops for their own ſervice; and recruits are likewiſe conſtantly raiſing to reinforce the army of the crown.

SEPTEMBER 3.

It is ſaid that a nobleman who lately arrived from a neighbouring kingdom, where he enjoys a public character, would have been appointed viceroy of a certain iſland had he arrived a little ſooner; but that important office having been obtained by the dexterity and management of the preſent V——y and his friends, the diſpoſer of court favours was loth to retract what he had done, eſpecially as the perſonage on whom he had conferred this great one had accepted it on the Terms it was offered to him, with more cordiality than it was thought the ſaid nobleman would do; beſides, the Thane did not chuſe to give any more proofs of his Caprice and Fickleneſs in the diſpoſal of this high office.

It is the opinion of ſeveral ſhrewd politicians, that his excellency lord Townſhend will be twice lord lieutenant of Ireland, to make him amends for the loſs he has ſuſtained by his preſent late appointment to that high office, as his excellency has loſt above a year's ſallary by not being appointed in the uſual time.

It is ſaid that Sir John Lindſey, member of parliament for Aberdeen in Scotland, is to be appointed commander in chief of his majeſty's ſquadron in the Mediterranean.

SEPTEMBER 8.

Extract of a letter from Dublin.

"Whoever would be a popular Lord Lieutenant of this kingdom muſt drink hard, and keep an open table and open cellar; the foible of the people in general is hoſpitality, and whoever practiſes this with prudence will not meet with much oppoſition in any thing he makes a point of carrying; this was ſo well underſtood and practiſed by ſome viceroys, that they were thereby enabled to do more hurt to the nation than any of their unpopular predeceſſors ever did, or could do. Whatever the Iriſh gentlemen promiſe over their bottle they are aſhamed to retract when ſober, nay, if even a member of parliament ſhould, in his nocturnal cups, promiſe the lord lieutenant, or his M——r, to ſupport or acquieſce in any court meaſure when the ſame ſhould come before the houſe, he would think himſelf, in honour, bound to keep his word, were he ever ſo ſenſible of its being detrimental to his country."

We hear, that a great perſonage in the law having been lately aſked, in private converſation, his opinion of the famous cauſe of Hamilton and Douglas, ſaid, that the principles upon which the ſuppoſitious birth of Mr. Douglas is founded, would, if purſued, prove the birth of hundreds of the nobility and gentry of Great-Britain to be ſo too, tho' many of them now enjoy ample fortunes upon the ſuppoſition of their being the real and legitimate ſons of their reputed parents.

We hear that orders are ſent to Ireland for the ſeveral forts and caſtles in that kingdom to be ſurveyed by able engineers, in order to be repaired, and put in a ſtate of defence.

In 1758 the Engliſh navy conſiſted of ſeven firſt rates, 13 ſecond ditto, 43 third ditto, 63 fourth ditto; which are accounted of the line; 39 fifth rates, 27 ſixth ditto, 7 fire ſhips, 7 bombs, 9 yatches, 18 brigs and tenders. In all 231. To command this fleet there were only 7 admirals (none were ſuperannuated) there were no maſters and commanders, and the number of captains and lieutenants were proportionally moderate.

At the concluſion of the peace, in 1762, the navy conſiſted of 152 ſhips of the line, 116 fifth and ſixth rates, 61 ſloops, 7 yatches, 1 hoſpital ſhip, 8 fire ſhips, 2 ſtore ſhips, 6 bombs. In all 354; being the whole navy commiſſioned and non-commiſſioned.—Officers to this fleet, in commiſſion, and reduced to half-pay; 32 admirals that rank, 20 ditto ſuperannuated. In all 52. 329 poſt captains, 259 maſters and commanders, 984 lieutenants.

SEPTEMBER 10.

Letters from Madrid of the 23d ult. ſay, "Expreſſes continue to arrive at Aranjuez very frequently from Paris and Liſbon, which have occaſioned many councils to be held. It is pretended, that they relate chiefly to the affairs of the Jeſuits; but thoſe whoſe judgment and information are moſt to be relied on, and who dare ſpeak out, make no ſcruple to declare, that ſome matters of great importance reſpecting Great Britain are in agitation between this court and thoſe of Paris and Liſbon."

By a Gentleman from Ireland we learn, that the generality of the people there are ſo fired with the love of liberty, that unleſs the bill for limiting the duration of their parliament to ſeven years, which has already been ſo often brought into the houſe and rejected, ſhall paſs into a law the enſuing ſeſſion, it is the opinion of thoſe who are beſt acquainted with the temper and diſpoſition of the people, that the whole kingdom will be in a ferment, and miſe be more frequent and outrageous than they have been ſince the revolution; but it is hoped the prudence and moderation of their preſent lord Lieutenant, and of the legiſlature in general, will prevent all this, by gratifying them in what they have ſo long in vain ſolicited for.

It is the opinion of ſome ſhrewd politicians, that if a bill ſhould be brought into parliament the enſuing ſeſſion to grant repreſentatives therein to the colonies, the court will be ſo far from hindering it to paſs, that on the contrary it will promote it as much as poſſible, in order to ſtop their mouths, and that they may no longer plead that as an excuſe for their refuſing to be taxed by the mother country.

According to private letters from Warſaw, received at Dantzick the laſt inſt. divine ſervice continues to be performed according to the Lutheran ceremony in the chapel of the Daniſh miniſter; and as the Jeſuits church joins to that chapel, their ſervice is frequently interrupted by the ſinging of Lutheran hymns. The Jeſuits thereupon applied to the prince primate to put his ſeal upon that chapel; in anſwer to which that prince aſked them if they were acquainted with the law of nations? what they would ſay, and what method they would take to relieve themſelves, if the ſeal of Ruſſia was to be put on their church and their rich convents? and whether it would not be more conſiſtent with their inſtitution if they were to employ themſelves in converting heathens, rather than in ſowing diviſions among chriſtians?

Extract of a letter from Warſaw dated Auguſt 19.

"There is ſtill a great buſtle amongſt the grandees in this city, and the criſis of the public affairs becomes every day more intereſting, yet we are not able to gueſs what will be the reſult.

"Prince Radzivil has never ſeen the king ſince he had an audience of his majeſty. His highneſs's retinue, when he goes abroad, is little inferior to that of the king's. He has cauſed ſeveral of the grandees to raiſe ſmall bodies of troops, and the Staroſt Denjadink, among others, has levied a company of 150 horſe grenadiers for the ſervice of that prince.

Extract of a letter from Leghorn, Auguſt 29.

"The Jeſuits diſembarked at Calvi, in the iſland of Corſica, amount to 800, and the Corſicans intrenched in the convent of the Capuchins, (a muſket-ſhot diſtant from them) conſiſt of 400 men. On the other hand, the Genoeſe garriſon, which ſucceeded the French there, is compoſed only of 150 ſoldiers. Ajaccio is already in the power of the Corſicans, the inhabitants having taken arms and opened the gates to them immediately after the departure of his moſt chriſtian majeſty's troops."

Warſaw, Aug. 22. Prince Poniatowſki, chamberlain of the crown; prince Czartoryſki, general of Podolia; count Braniſki, great hutſman of the crown, and ſeveral other great officers ſigned the acceſſion to the general confederacy on the 14th inſt. but each of them under certain reſtrictions.

LONDON, SEPTEMBER 12.

Wedneſday there was a full board of admiralty, at which Sir Edward Hawke was preſent; when ſeveral commiſſions were ſigned, and orders iſſued out.

Thurſday morning it was reported, that inſtructions are preparing to be ſent off to his majeſty's admirals and governors in the Weſt Indies, relating to the late extraordinary proceedings of the French and Spaniards in thoſe parts.

Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick is ſaid to be expected in England this winter.

His majeſty's marine forces are to be formed into five battalions of 800 men each; the command of which is to be given to his royal highneſs the duke of Cumberland, with the rank of major-general, and an appointment of 6l. per day.

They write from Jamaica, that two ſecond rate Spaniſh men of war, the Guaiſquil and Porto Seguro, of 90 guns each, were launched at the Havannah the latter end of June laſt.

They write from Cadiz, that 1200 ſailors were, by an order of the court, to embark for the Havannah, on board 4 tranſports then fitting out in the harbour.

Wages of an hundred guineas to five, are offered that a ſeptennial parliament will not be granted to the people of Ireland.

According to letters from Leghorn, it was expected the malcontents of Corſica, would be in poſſeſſion of the whole iſland before Chriſtmas next.

We learn from Copenhagen of the 8th. ult. that a treaty of commerce is negotiating between the courts of England and Denmark, by which, among other beneficial articles, the ſubjects of Great Britain are to enjoy an excluſive privilege, in caſe of future war, in being ſupplied with naval military ſtores from the Daniſh ſettlements in the Weſt-Indies.

They write from Jamaica, that the Spaniards have for ſome time paſt been buſy in augmenting the fortifications of Campeachy, St. Jago de Cuba, Sancta Maria Bay in Porto Rico, and ſeveral other ports in the Weſt-Indies.

A commiſſion is ſaid to be received to purchaſe ſeveral ſtout ſhips of burthen, to be fitted up for war, and laden with naval ſtores for the ſervice of the Corſicans.

It is ſaid, that the parliament will meet for the diſpatch of buſineſs the beginning of December.

The number of Cadets educated in the royal-ſchool at Woolwich has hitherto been confined to 48, but it is now to be extended to 100.

We are credibly informed that an opinion univerſally prevails among the Papiſts (upon what grounds we know not) that the accounts now taking of their numbers is not pleaſing to certain great perſonages, and that they will neither be accepted nor taken any notice of by the parliament, ſo as to cauſe any ſteps to be taken to their diſadvantage in conſequence thereof.

The late behaviour of the Spaniards to the Britiſh ſhips in the Weſt Indies, occaſions ſtrange rumours, which, in all probability, will bring on much altercation between the two courts, if not an open rupture.

St. James's, September 12. The king has been pleaſed to grant unto the right hon. William Lord Mansfield, chief juſtice of his majeſty's court of king's bench, the office of chancellor of his majeſty's exchequer, in the room of the right hon. Charles Townſhend, deceaſed. Gaz.

Genoa, Auguſt 15. The ſhips, which have lately arrived at this port, met in their paſſage with three Corſican veſſels, on a cruize. Our garriſon at Calvi have prevented the Corſicans from getting poſſeſſion of Boſtello, and ſeveral of the Malcontents were killed. The French have delivered up the fort of Ajaccio to our troops.

Genoa, Auguſt 29. Letters from Calvi of the 25th ſay, that hoſtilities were committed daily between the republick's troops in garriſon and the Corſicans: that on the 24th a ſmart ſkirmiſh happened; and that the Corſicans had been diſlodged from the convent of St. Francis, which was almoſt deſtroyed by the bomb ſhells and cannon-ſhot fired from the Caſtle.

ALL perſons indebted to the eſtate of Doctor William Pillans, deceaſed, by bond, note, or book debt, are deſired to make payment on or before the firſt day of January next, and all thoſe who have any demands againſt the ſaid eſtate are likewiſe deſired, by that time, to give in their accompts properly attended, to

CHARLES-TOWN, November 9.

The SPEECH of his Excellency the right Honourable Lord CHARLES GREVILLE MONTAGU, Captain general and commander in chief, in and over his Majesty's province of South Carolina; delivered to the general assembly of the said province, on Thursday last.

Honourable gentlemen,

Mr. Speaker, and gentlemen of the commons house of assembly.

I Should think myself equally negligent, in the duty I owe to my king and this province, if I did not recommend to you, an early and serious consideration of the unhappy situation of the back parts of this country, the various acts of villainy committed there, in contempt of all laws human and divine, we have too frequent accounts of, and too recent proofs of, in the late trials of the unhappy convicts, now under sentence of death; far remote from the seat of justice, they are daily exposed to misery and distress. These are objects that require redress, and are worthy the care of the legislature.

Tumultuous risings of any people, if not properly attended to, are of dangerous tendency; they are a disgrace to a country, and particularly pernicious to a commercial and new settled colony.

The means to suppress those licentious spirits, that have so lately appeared in the distant parts of the province, and, assuming the name of Regulators, have, in defiance of government, and to the subversion of good order, illegally tried, condemned, and punished, many persons, require an attentive deliberation.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen.

I have ordered the public accomtps to be laid before you, in due time; and now shall only recommend to you, a careful enquiry what laws already are expired, or may soon, and the revival or continuance of such, as may appear necessary and advantageous to the public.

C. G. MONTAGU.

5th November, 1767.

To his excellency the right hon. lord CHARLES GREVILLE MONTAGU, captain general, governor and commander in chief, in and over his majesty's province of South-Carolina.

The humble ADDRESS of his Majesty's COUNCIL,

May it please your Excellency,

WE, his majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the council of this province, beg leave to return our thanks to your excellency, for your speech delivered yesterday to both houses of assembly.

It is with the utmost concern that we behold the distracted state of the frontier settlements of this province, where force and rapine, riot and disorder, supercede the temperate provisions of law and justice; but tumultuary examples never fail to multiply those evils which it is the policy of well regulated states to prevent by proper laws.

The great objects proposed to our consideration deserve the most serious and deliberate attention; and we assure your excellency, that we shall, on our parts, most heartily concur in every measure calculated to advance the public good, to compose the minds, and remove the distresses, of our fellow subjects.

In the upper house of assembly the 7th day of November, 1767.

By order of the house,
OTHNIEL BEALE.

The court of general sessions of the peace, oyer and terminer, assize and general jail delivery, begun to be holden here on Monday the 16th past, continued sitting till Wednesday the 27th; in which time his Majesty's attorney general gave out to the grand jury SIXTY-TWO bills of indictment, fifty of which were found true bills: He likewise filed four informations, one against George Roberts, for killing a negro, and the rest against Andrew Meyer, Elizabeth Russel, and John Roche, for selling liquors without licence. Thirty one persons were tried, and twenty five were found guilty of different offences, amongst the most material of whom were

Mark Nettles, Sylvester Stokes, James Stokes, Thomas Floyd } of murder;
John Boone, Lewis Chardon } of manslaughter
John Showers, as accessary to murder after the fact;
Redman M'Mahon, John Hogan, John Shirley, Richard Rottenbury, jun. } of horse stealing;
Jonathan Clark, alias McConnel, of stealing negroes; and John Sullivan, of petit larceny;

Three other indictments were confessed by the defendants; the attorney general entered two Nolle Prosequi's, in cases tenderly circumstanced; and twenty nine trials stand over for next sessions, partly by traverses, and partly on bills found whereon process is issued.

At an adjournment of the said court to Monday last, Nettles, the two Stokes, Floyd, and Clark, received sentence of death, to be hang'd on Friday next the 13th instant; Boone and Showers, were burnt in the hand; Chardon pleaded his majesty's pardon; M'Mahon, Hogan, Shirley and Rottenbury, were burnt in the hand (the act which rendered HORSE-STEALING felony without benefit of clergy being expired); and Sullivan was sentenced to be whipped on Saturday next the 14th.

At another adjournment of said court to this day, Thomas Conyers, against whom a bill of indictment had been found for maltreating and rescuing one of the provost-marshal's deputies in the execution of his office, to which bill he had pleaded guilty, was sentenced to pay a fine of £. 50 proclamation money, to suffer four months imprisonment, and to continue in custody until he should find good security for his behaviour for a twelve-month and a day: And the court was adjourned over to third Wednesday in January next.

His majesty's ship Sardoine, commanded by James Hawker, Esq; is to sail for England, on Friday next, wind and weather permitting.
